Executive Summary

Industry Statistics report on the size and shape of the gambling industry in Great Britain.

This report provides an overview of Gross Gambling Yield (GGY) by sector, along with the numbers of licensed operators, premises and people employed within the industry. It is based on data reported to us by the operators we licence and regulate.

An accompanying data file has more detail, including historical data back to 2009.

Total GGY for the industry was £14.3bn in the year October 2018 to September 2019. This represents a marginal decrease of £69.0m (-0.5%) on the previous reporting period.

Remote (or online) gambling is the largest combined sector by GGY. With £5.5bn GGY, it comprises 38.6% of the overall market. Remote sector GGY increased by £229.3m (4.3%). Online casino games dominate the sector, generating £3.2bn in GGY, mostly from slots games. GGY for remote betting totalled £2.1bn, led by football and horse betting. Remote bingo grew 12.5% to £198.1m.

National Lottery ticket sales increased by £281.0m to £7.5bn. This supported a GGY equivalent increase of £105.3m (3.4%), to £3.2bn, making the National Lottery the second largest sector by GGY. Over the same period, the primary contribution to good causes increased by £96.0m (6.5%) to £1.6bn.

Non-remote betting GGY was the third largest sector by GGY with £2.8bn (-13.8%). GGY for off-course and pool betting decreased, while on-course activities increased marginally. Within off-course data, machines GGY decreased by £361.2m (-19.8%) (see Machines section below). Machines represented 52.1% of total betting GGY. Total numbers of betting premises have continued to decline for the sixth consecutive reporting period to 7,315 (-12.1%).

The non-remote casino sector saw a decrease of £6.1m (-0.6%) in GGY, to £1.1bn. This was caused by a decrease in GGY from casino games of £9.5m (-1.1%). GGY from casino-based machines increased by £3.4m (1.6%).

Non-remote bingo GGY decreased slightly to £669.0m (-0.6%), continuing a steady decline.

Lotteries (excluding the National Lottery and small society lotteries), saw a GGY equivalent increase to £572.5m (5.7%), with balance to good causes at £344.7m, a £12.4m (3.7%) increase from the last reporting period. This is the highest contribution figure reported to date.

In the arcades sector, adult gaming centres showed a slight increase of £22.6m (5.8%) in GGY, reporting £409.0m. GGY for licensed family entertainment centres also increased (6.4%), reporting £52.7m. Note that this data does not include family entertainment centres which operate using a permit from a local authority.

Machines GGY over the year to September 2019 increased in all sectors except betting. This increase was across all machine categories, except B2 and C. Across all sectors, GGY from Category B2 machines decreased by £541.2m to £624.2m (-46.4%). B3 is now the highest machine category for GGY, increasing by £202.9m (18.5%) to £1.3bn.

Note that a change in regulations reducing maximum stakes from £100 to £2 for Category B2 machines took effect in April 2019. This publication includes the first six months of data submitted since the change of regulations.

The number of licensed activities has decreased to 3,641 (-0.4%). These licences are held by 2,652 operators (-1.3%).

The overall number of licensed gambling premises in Great Britain has fallen by 1,036 to 9,745 (-9.6%). The majority of these were betting premises which declined by 1,005 (-12.1%).

This publication is primarily for anyone who has an involvement or interest in the gambling industry including government, licensed operators, trade bodies, international regulators, journalists, academic researchers, financial institutions, statisticians, consumers and local authorities.
