

GAMBLING COMMISSION E-BULLETIN – ISSUE 91

11 September 2009

Welcome to the fortnightly email bulletin from the Gambling Commission (the Commission).

You have registered on our website to receive news and updates from us, and we issue this e-bulletin at fortnightly intervals to keep you up to date.

In this edition:

- 1. Remote technical standards
- 2. Fight against illegal machine supply continues

1. Remote technical standards

The Commission has published the Remote gambling and software technical standards (RTS) – August 2009. This is an update to the version published in June 2007 and now incorporates the RTS security requirements.

Testing strategy for compliance with remote gambling and software technical standards - August 2009 has also been updated to provide further clarification in relation to the:

- procedure for third party testing
- testing and audit requirements for remote lottery licensees.

Read more...

2. Fight against illegal machine supply continues

The Commission has published a press release detailing the result of two multi-agency operations in Lancashire.

Read more...

Following action by Thanet District Council a Margate man has been given a conditional discharge for 12 months and ordered to pay £120 costs, after pleading guilty to having gaming machines on his premises without the appropriate permissions.

Read more...

If your colleagues would like to subscribe to this newsletter, please register here.

- Previous e-bulletins are available on our website here.
- A complete list of the Commission's publications is available here.
- Current consultations and forthcoming publications can be found on the website.
- Find a list of our operators here and a list of our regulatory decisions here.
- The information in this e-bulletin falls under the terms and conditions of our website.

If you do not wish to receive future issues, simply click here and send the email that is generated to unsubscribe.