1. New licence conditions and codes of practice now in force

The new Licence Conditions and Codes of Practice (LCCP) came into force on 1 January 2009.

The LCCP was updated following consultation in October 2008, and the Commission has now produced a number of documents and by-sector breakdowns to guide operators regarding the changes.

2. Updated key points on regulation now available

The Commission has updated our guides on the key points on regulation for each sector. These short overviews are suitable for journalists, members of the public and new operators, to help them understand the key responsibilities each gambling sector has under the Gambling Act 2005 and the Licence Conditions and Codes of Practice.

3. Stakes and Prizes

DCMS have released a further consultation on stakes and prizes, proposing a £1 stake, £70 prize for Category C machines, and further changes for Category D machines.
