

List of approved casino games

July 2008

---

1 Introduction

- 1.1 The Gambling Act 2005 (the Act) gives the Gambling Commission (the Commission), as part of its statutory role, the power to attach to any casino operating licence conditions which specify the types of casino game that can be made available. The Commission may also specify rules for casino games or any equal chance game played in a casino.
- 1.2 In June 2007, the Commission published the document, Licence Conditions and Codes of Practice (LCCP June 2007). That document contains the conditions and codes that apply to each of the sectors the Commission regulates under the Act.
- 1.3 LCCP (June 2007) explains that non-remote casino operating licensees must only offer or permit to be played certain games that appear on this list of approved casino games. There is one exception to this; games may be made available for a specified period in accordance with a Commission approved trial of a proposed new game. LCCP (June 2007) also set out that licensees must follow any rules for the playing of approved casino games, or other games of chance, as may be prescribed by the Commission. Revisions to LCCP (June 2007) have been consulted on, but no changes to these provisions have been proposed.
- 1.4 The games and side bets included in this document include those trialled from September 2007 which have now been approved.

Gambling Commission July 2008

The Gambling Commission regulates gambling in the public interest. It does so by keeping crime out of gambling, by ensuring that gambling is conducted fairly and openly, and by protecting children and vulnerable people from being harmed or exploited by gambling. The Commission also provides independent advice to government on gambling in Britain.
