

Response

Thank you for your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Having completed a check of our records, I can confirm that the Commission does not hold information on the number of jackpot winning tickets purchased online or from retail vendors therefor unfortunately we are unable to help you with this request.

The Commission is responsible for licensing and regulating the National Lottery, ensuring the interests of participants are protected and maximising returns for Good Causes, we do not collect details on the split you are interested in between retail and online winning tickets. This information is processed by Camelot as the operator of the National Lottery but it is not information we are required to collect in support of our regulatory functions.

Review of the decision

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your Freedom of Information request and wish to make a complaint or request a review of our decision, you should write to FOI Team, Gambling Commission, 4th floor, Victoria Square House, Victoria Square, Birmingham, B2 4BP.

If you are not content with the outcome of your complaint, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner (ICO) for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the Gambling Commission. The ICO can be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF.

Request

Question 1,

Can you provide me with the total number of jackpot winning tickets purchased from retailer vendors between January 1st 2006 to January 1st 2016. i.e. paper tickets purchased from National Lottery retailer terminals.

Question 2,

Can you provide me with the total number of jackpot winning tickets purchased online between January 1st 2006 to January 1st 2016. i.e. electronic tickets purchased from the National Lottery website.
