

E-BULLETIN

Monday 4 March 2019

Welcome to the Gambling Commission's fortnightly newsletter.

---

New: Annual gambling participation and problem gambling report published

This data provides the most robust information to date on gambling participation and problem gambling in Great Britain.

Read more

Responses in: Informal consultation on amendments to the protection of customer funds rating system

We have published our response to the informal consultation on amendments to the protection of customer funds rating system.

Read more

Money Service business activities - casinos

We have formalised our existing agreement with HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) to reflect changes brought by recent money laundering legislation.

Read more

Gambling Commission calls for evidence on Category B gaming machines and gambling online with credit cards

We are inviting members of the public, gambling businesses and other stakeholders to provide their views on two key issues as part of our work to prevent gambling-related harms.

Read more

Have your say on customer interaction, Alternative Dispute Resolution and gambling blocking software

We are calling for views on plans to accelerate progress in our drive to make Britain's gambling industry the fairest and safest in the world. We would like to hear views from all stakeholders on three proposed measures to reduce gambling harms and help consumers in dispute with operators.

GAMBLING COMMISSION

Read more

Gambling Commission welcomes RGSB advice on new National Strategy

We have welcomed advice from the Responsible Gambling Strategy Board (RGSB) on the new National Strategy to reduce gambling harms which will be published by the Commission in April.

Read more

- Follow us
- Follow us

The next e-bulletin is out on Monday 18 March 2019

If you would like to unsubscribe please click on the link at the bottom of the email we sent you.