

Monday 27 July 2020

Welcome to the Gambling Commission's fortnightly newsletter.

Interim suspension of operating licence – Genesis Global Limited

We have commenced a review under section 116 of the Gambling Act 2005 (the Act) and, under section 118 of the Act, have decided to suspend Operating Licence No 000-045235-R-324169-010 Combined Remote Operating Licence – Real Event Betting, Virtual Betting, and Casino held by Genesis Global Limited whilst that review takes place. This is due to a number of compliance issues.

Read more

Consultation: online games design

We are consulting on changes to the design of online slots - specifically to make them safer for consumers.

Have your say

Consultation: High Value Customers (HVCs)

We are seeking views on proposed changes to the rules operators must abide by when transacting with high value customers.

Have your say

Changes to Remote Key Equipment take effect from 29 July

Following a consultation, from 29 July we will no longer require remote operators to:

- a. make an application to vary the licence prior to adding or relocating any remote key equipment from the jurisdiction stated in Schedule R of the licence
- b. submit a key event if they move remote key equipment within a jurisdiction.

To prepare for these changes, we will be changing eServices to remove the sections relating to remote key equipment. Similar changes will be made to the Operating Licence (OL) variation form available to download from our website.

Read more

Covid-19 – latest information for operators re-opening land-based gambling premises

This page features information covering our expectations as land-based operators begin to re-open.

Read more

Covid-19 – general operator guidance and FAQs

This page features frequently asked questions covering our expectations from all operators.

Read more

Follow us

Follow us

The next e-bulletin is out on Monday 10 August 2020

If you would like to unsubscribe please click on the link at the bottom of the email we sent you.

Subscribe to e-bulletin